If a resolution is not reached, please arrange a meeting with the Head Administrator to discuss any concern, problem, or issue that arises during the course of your employment. Retaliation against any employee for the appropriate use of communication channels is unacceptable. Please remember it is counterproductive for employees to create or repeat rumors or office gossip.

We encourage all employees to bring forward their suggestions and good ideas about how La Academia Dolores Huerta can be made a better place to work and our service to students enhanced. You are expected to review the Employee Handbook, be familiar with information it contains and to maintain a copy for future reference.

II. EMPLOYMENT POLICIES

A. Equal Employment Opportunity: La Academia Dolores Huerta is an equal opportunity employer committed to maintaining a non-discriminatory, diverse work environment. La Academia Dolores Huerta does not unlawfully discriminate against any person on the basis of race, color, religious creed, age, sex, national origin or ancestry, mental or physical disability, medical condition, status as a Vietnam-Era or disabled veteran status, military service, sexual orientation, spousal affiliation, marital status, gender identity or any other basis protected by federal, state or local law. This policy covers all programs, services, policies, and procedures of La Academia Dolores Huerta.

B. Employees with Disabilities: In accordance with the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA), La Academia Dolores Huerta does not discriminate against any "qualified individuals with a disability." Individuals qualify for employment if they meet the educational, skills, and experience requirements of a position and can perform the essential functions of the job with or without a reasonable accommodation. Individuals have a disability if they have an impairment that impacts a major life function such as caring for one's self, performing manual tasks, walking, hearing, seeing, speaking, breathing, learning, or if the impairment otherwise impacts an individual's ability to perform a class of jobs or broad range of jobs. Psychological impairments, learning disabilities, and some chronic health impairments, such as epilepsy, diabetes, arthritis, cancer, cardiac problems, and AIDS may also be considered disabilities.

La Academia Dolores Huerta is committed to diversity and nondiscrimination and supports the full employment of qualified individuals with disabilities in its workforce. Therefore, a process has been established to assist employees with disabilities in reasonably modifying the work environment to allow the employee to perform the essential functions of his or her job. It is the responsibility of the employee to request an accommodation of his or her physical or mental disability by contacting the Head Administrator. In accordance with the ADA, La Academia Dolores Huerta will take such requests seriously and will promptly determine whether the employee is a qualified individual with a disability and whether a reasonable accommodation exists which would allow the employee to perform the essential functions of the job without imposing an undue hardship on La Academia Dolores Huerta or other employees. If you believe that you have been unlawfully discriminated against because of a disability, you should discuss the matter with the Head Administrator or the Human Resources Manager and/or follow the complaint procedure described in Section I. C.6, below.

C. Anti-Harassment/Discrimination Policy: La Academia Dolores Huerta is committed to providing a work place that is free of unlawful discrimination or harassment. Every employee is expected to treat his or her co-workers, visitors, students and guests professionally and respectfully.

Each employee is required to familiarize him/herself with this Anti-Harassment/Discrimination Policy, reporting obligations and procedures. If you have any questions about the school's policy, please contact the Head Administrator or his/her designee for clarification.

1. No Tolerance Harassment/Discrimination Policy. La Academia Dolores Huerta is committed to creating a workplace free of discrimination and harassment. Both the law and La Academia Dolores Huerta prohibit any form of discrimination and/or harassment based on race, color, religious creed, age, sex, national origin or ancestry, mental or physical disability, medical condition, status as a Vietnam-Era or disabled veteran status, military service, sexual orientation, spousal affiliation, marital status, gender identity or any other basis protected by federal, state or local law. All of these groups are referred to in this policy as "protected classes." This policy applies to all employees, contract workers, consultants, vendors, students, parents and guardians, visitors and guests, or any other people doing business with or for the school. It is in effect not only at La Academia Dolores Huerta's primary site but during all school-sponsored functions.

2. Discrimination/Harassment Described. Discrimination and harassment include conduct that could reasonably be construed generally as any unwelcome behavior towards another, whether verbal, physical or visual, that is based on a person's belonging to a protected class. This conduct will most likely interfere with others' ability to work and most certainly will be intolerable as an example to our students and our community. All such harassment can be unlawful when it is severe or pervasive enough to affect a reasonable employee's job

a. SEXUAL HARASSMENT: Because sexual harassment raises issues about human interaction that are to some extent unique, the subject of sexual harassment is described separately here, however, it is no more or less tolerable than harassment based on some other protected status. Sexual harassment is a form of sex discrimination that may include:

- requests for sexual favors;
- sexual advances;
- persistent or unwelcome flirtation or requests for dates, especially if the behavior continues after a clear objection has been made;
- sexually motivated inappropriate conduct such as facial expressions or body language, leering, making sexual gestures or actual touching, kissing, impeding or blocking another's movements;
- displaying sexually suggestive objects, pictures or cartoons; demands to submit to sexual requests in order to maintain employment or avoid some employment-related loss (e.g. salary), and offers of job benefits or favors in return for sexual favors; AND/OR
- intimidation and hostility directed to an individual because of sex; or explicit or degrading verbal, written or electronic comments of a sexual nature, such as comments about an individual's body or dress.

This list is not exhaustive and applies to conduct by co-workers, supervisors, volunteers and others invited to the school premises. Sexual harassment can apply to conduct in any work-related setting outside the work place as well, including on social media. It may also apply to situations involving individuals of the same sex.

Consensual sexual behavior between adults, outside the workplace and welcome by both parties is not considered sexual harassment; however, those who engage in such relationships should be aware that questions regarding the actual freedom of choice of one of the parties may be raised later, especially when a superior/subordinate relationship exists between them.

IF YOU BELIEVE THAT YOU HAVE EXPERIENCED OR WITNESSED SEXUAL HARASSMENT, FOLLOW THE PROCESS DESCRIBED IN PARAGRAPHS 3 THROUGH 6 BELOW.

b. HARASSMENT/DISCRIMINATION OTHER BASIS. Other prohibited harassment includes verbal or physical conduct which degrades or shows hostility or aversion toward an individual even partly because of a person's belonging to a protected class. Conduct similar to that described above as sexual harassment and discrimination, if based on one of these protected classifications is illegal. For example, verbal conduct such as epithets, jokes based on ethnicity, age-related derogatory comments, foul or obscene language or racial slurs will likely be unwanted and offensive to others resulting in unwelcome behavior that could be interpreted as harassing or discriminatory.

3. Employee Responsibilities. All employees of La Academia Dolores Huerta are responsible for taking appropriate action to prevent and eliminate harassment and discrimination at La Academia Dolores Huerta. If you experience discrimination or harassment, La Academia Dolores Huerta encourages you to firmly and promptly notify the offender that his or her conduct is offensive, even if it is not directed at you. If you choose not to address the issue directly with the person, or if the conduct continues you should report the conduct immediately. If you observe discrimination or harassment of another employee, student, visitor or guest, by a fellow employee, report the concern immediately. At no time should you assume that inappropriate conduct between a student and an adult is acceptable, “consensual” or that it should not be reported because you are concerned that you misinterpreted the conduct.

4. Reporting Complaints. If you experience or observe harassment or discrimination you should bring your concerns directly to La Academia Dolores Huerta’s Head Administrator. Your complaint will be promptly investigated by the individual to whom you reported or a third-party investigator, if appropriate. The complainant and the alleged offender will be instructed to limit their work contact with each other immediately, pending the outcome of the investigation.

5. No retaliation. La Academia Dolores Huerta will not tolerate retaliation or reprisals of any type against any employee who complains of harassment or provides information in connection with any such complaint. Retaliation is considered to be misconduct and grounds for disciplinary action, up to and including discharge.

6. Complaint Procedure, Investigation and Response. Complaints may initially be made verbally, however, the complainant MUST complete a “Harassment Complaint Form” to assist with the investigation process.

a. Normally, an investigation will include interviews with the complainant, and the alleged offender (who will be told of all of the allegations against him or her) and all witnesses or other relevant persons as necessary to establish the facts. All employee-witnesses, the complainant and the alleged offender are expected to cooperate in the investigation. Failure to cooperate or deliberately providing false information during an investigation, including in complaint itself, will be grounds for disciplinary action, up to termination or discharge. Other individuals, such as a third party investigator, may be involved to resolve the complaint. The investigator will collect and review all relevant documents.

b. La Academia Dolores Huerta will investigate every report of harassment or discrimination. In conducting an investigation, La Academia Dolores Huerta will respect the privacy of all concerned; however, complete confidentiality may not always be possible because of the need to conduct a complete and thorough investigation and to ensure that both sides’ interests are fairly protected.

c. As soon as the investigation is finished, the investigator will meet with the individual's supervisor or if appropriate the supervisor's supervisor(s), and report whether he or she believes that discrimination or harassment has occurred. If the investigation results in a finding of discrimination and/or harassment, then the supervisor will determine the appropriate disciplinary action up to and including a recommendation to terminate or discharge the employee. The supervisor will inform the complainant and the alleged offender of the outcome of the investigation and his/her proposed disciplinary action. The date of the discussion with the respective party shall constitute the "determination date."

d. Appeal. If the complainant or alleged offender is not satisfied with the outcome of a discrimination complaint, either employee may appeal that decision to the La Academia Dolores Huerta Governing Council or to a neutral third party, whichever is deemed appropriate by the Head Administrator under the circumstances. The employee appealing the supervisor's decision must submit a written appeal to the Head Administrator with copies to the other party within five (5) working days of the determination date. The non-appealing party and supervisor of the appealing party has the option of submitting written materials in support of their respective positions within three (3) working days from the date they receive the appealing parties' appeal.

e. Final Decision. The Governing Council or neutral third-party will inform the complainant/respondent of the appeal decision in writing within five (5) working days from the date the appeal was submitted. This is the final level of review in the internal complaint process. The time lines set forth in this policy may be waived or extended by the Governing Council.

D. Religious Accommodation: Sometimes individuals hold religious beliefs or conduct religious practices that conflict with their work schedules or assigned responsibilities. La Academia Dolores Huerta will attempt to provide a reasonable accommodation for religious beliefs and practices of such individuals if to do so does not impose an undue hardship for the employee's department, or interfere with the employee's ability to perform the essential functions of the position. If you would like to request reasonable accommodation based on your religious beliefs, you should contact the Head Administrator or the Business Manager. You may be asked to provide appropriate documentation to support your request.

E. Employee Background Check: Prior to becoming an employee of La Academia Dolores Huerta, a comprehensive background check consisting of prior employment verification, professional reference checks, education verification, licensure and certification confirmation, and a criminal background check is conducted in accordance with applicable laws. If applicable to your position, a driving records check will be completed.

F. Immigration Law Compliance: All offers of employment are contingent upon verification of your right to work in the United States. You will be asked to provide original documents verifying your right to work and, as required by federal law, to sign a Federal Form I-9, "Employment Eligibility Verification Form." If you at any time cannot verify your right to work in the United States, La Academia Dolores Huerta may be obliged to terminate your employment.

G. Personnel Records: The responsibility of handling personnel records and related personnel administration functions at La Academia Dolores Huerta has been assigned to the Business Manager/Business Specialist. Questions regarding insurance, wages, and interpretation of personnel policies may be directed to him or her. La Academia Dolores Huerta strives to balance its need to obtain, use, and retain employment information with each individual's right to privacy. To this end, it attempts to restrict the personnel information maintained to that which is necessary for the conduct of its business or which is required by federal, state, or local law. The Head Administrator (or designee) is responsible for overseeing the record keeping for all personnel information. Employees have a responsibility to ensure their personnel records are up to date and should notify the Business Manager/Specialist in writing of any changes in name; address; contact phone numbers; marital status (for benefits and tax withholding purposes only); number of dependents (for benefits and tax withholding purposes only); addresses and telephone numbers of dependents and spouse or former spouse (for insurance purposes only); beneficiary designations if applicable; and emergency contact information. If you have a change in any of these items, please complete an "employee change" form and return to the Business Manager/Specialist as soon as possible. There shall be one (1) single official file for each employee which shall be maintained by the Business Manager/Specialist except for documents that relate the employee grievances or as required by the Federal Medical Leave Act.

1. Inspection of Personnel File. Employees may inspect their own personnel records in the presence of the Head Administrator (or designee) except documents relating to confidential materials related to pre-employment. Such an inspection must be requested in writing to the Head Administrator (or designee) and will be scheduled at a mutually convenient time. Employees who feel that any file material is incomplete, inaccurate, or irrelevant may submit a written request to the Head Administrator (or designee) that documentation to correct such materials be added to personnel files. Only supervisors and others in management who have an employment related need-to-know about another employee may inspect the personnel files of a particular employee.

3. Absence or Lateness. If you are unable to report to work, or if you will arrive late, you are required to contact the office before 6:30 am. If you know in advance that you will need to be absent, you must request this time off directly from the Head Administrator. If you are absent because of an illness, the Head Administrator may require that you submit a written statement from your health care provider stating that you are able to resume your employment responsibilities. Unauthorized absences, lateness, or leaving campus may lead to disciplinary action, including possible termination or discharge.

4. Severe Weather and Emergency Conditions. In the event of severe weather conditions or other emergencies, La Academia Dolores Huerta will follow the post on its website procedures to be followed regarding the school's day/s modification/s.

La Academia Dolores Huerta will prioritize its expenditure of resources to achieve a competitive compensation position in public education in the local area market.

B. Pay Periods: Twelve month employees working an entire school year will be paid according to their contract in twenty-four (24) installments on the 15th and 30th of each month beginning July 15th. Ten month employees working an entire school year will be paid according to their contract in twenty-four (24) installments on the 15th and 30th of each month beginning August 15th. In the event the pay date falls on a weekend or holiday, the pay date will be the preceding work day. All employees working less than an entire school year will be paid according to this procedure but with a reduced number of installments. Your direct deposit/check will reflect your compensation for that pay period, less required payroll deductions.

Your deductions will be itemized on your payroll stub. You should review your paycheck stub carefully each payday. If, at anytime, you have any questions about the amounts shown on your paycheck or how they are calculated, you should contact the Business Manager. If you have been overpaid, and it is later discovered, you will be required to return the overpayment in full to La Academia Dolores Huerta

C. Basis for Determining Pay: The La Academia Dolores Huerta Governing Board adopts a salary schedule each year based upon education, experience, and legislative mandates.

D. Salary Increases: La Academia Dolores Huerta Governing Council shall set the salary schedule based on the school's annual budget. A licensed employee's salary will be based on the NMPED's mandated three-tier license, salary schedule. Any salary increase will be based on the salary schedule and individual qualifications. An increase in the three-tier system or Degree status will take effect during the current school year if the tier level and/or Degree change is communicated to the school before October 1 of the school year.

E. Direct Payroll Deposit: Direct payroll deposit is the automatic deposit of your pay directly into a financial institution account. Contact the Business Manager/Specialist for details and the necessary authorization forms. This is a benefit we provide for your convenience. We encourage all employees to take advantage of this service.

F. Mandatory Deductions from Paycheck: Federal, state and local income taxes and your contribution to Social Security and New Mexico Educators retirement system will be deducted from your paycheck as required by law. These deductions will be itemized on your check stub. The amount of the deductions will depend on your earnings and on the information you furnish on your W-4 form regarding the number of exemptions you claim. If you wish to modify the number of deductions, please request a new W-4 form from the Business Manager/Specialist. Only you may modify your W-4 form. Verbal or written instructions are not sufficient to modify withholding allowances. We advise you to check your pay stub to ensure that it reflects the proper number of withholdings. Other mandatory deductions from your paycheck include court-ordered garnishments or support deductions. If La Academia Dolores Huerta receives a court order mandating that your pay be garnished you will be notified and provided a copy of the order. La Academia Dolores Huerta will comply with the court order until such time as you provide a subsequently dated and signed court order directing La Academia Dolores Huerta to cease making the deduction from your paycheck.

G. Reimbursement for Travel and Expenses: Employees will be reimbursed for authorized travel and per diem expenses pursuant to the New Mexico Travel and Per Diem Rule, NMAC 2.24.2 as amended. You must obtain prior written authorization for expenditures for which you expect to be reimbursed for by La Academia Dolores Huerta. Failure to follow the appropriate procedures prior to incurring an expense for which you want to be reimbursed, may result in a denial of your request for reimbursement.

H. Employment Classifications: Your position at La Academia Dolores Huerta is classified as either regular full-time, part-time or short-term. In addition, you are classified as either non-exempt or exempt. Certain policies and procedures outlined in the Employee Handbook may apply differently to you depending on how your job position is classified. If you have a question concerning applicability of any particular provision, contact the Head Administrator or the Business Manager/Specialist prior to signing the receipt for this Handbook.

1. Non-Exempt and Exempt Employees. At the time you are hired or you transfer to a new position, you will be classified as either "exempt" or "nonexempt." This is necessary because, by law, employees in certain types of jobs are entitled to overtime pay for hours worked in excess of forty (40) hours per workweek. These employees are referred to as "non-exempt" in this Employee Handbook. This means that they are not exempt from (and therefore should receive) overtime pay.

Exempt employees are Head Administrators, business managers, teachers, counselors, social workers, and others whose duties and responsibilities allow them to be "exempt" from overtime pay provisions as provided by the Federal Fair Labor Standards Act (FLSA) and any applicable state laws.

2. Full-Time Employees. An employee who works 37.5 hours per week, is considered a full-time employee.

3. Part-Time Employees. An employee who is regularly scheduled to work less than 20 hours per week is considered a part-time employee. If you are a part-time employee working less than 20 hours per week, you are not eligible for the employee benefits described in this Employee Handbook.

4. Overtime Pay. If you are a non-exempt employee you will be paid overtime in accordance with state and federal laws. Any overtime must be approved in advance by your supervisor; failure to obtain authorization prior to working overtime may result in disciplinary action. For purposes of determining overtime pay, La Academia Dolores Huerta's workweek shall be from 12:00 a.m. Sunday until 11:59 p.m. Saturday.

5. Compensatory Time. La Academia Dolores Huerta does not award compensatory time off.

I. Records of Time Worked

If your position requires that you keep time records, you are responsible for accurately recording your time. No one may record hours worked on another's timecard or timesheet. Tampering with another's time record is cause for disciplinary action, up to and including discharge, of both employees. In the event of an error in recording your time, please report the matter to your supervisor immediately.

IV. PERFORMANCE

A. Performance Reviews: The Head Administrator will follow governing council policies and New Mexico Public Education Department requirements when conducting performance reviews for all licensed and certified personnel. The performance reviews will be conducted collaboratively between the Head Administrator and LA ACADEMIA DOLORES HUERTA employees. Nonexempt employees will be evaluated annually; licensed personnel will be evaluated in a manner consistent with PED regulations and the School's charter, if applicable. The school's Head Administrator will be evaluated no less frequently than once per year by La Academia Dolores Huerta's Governing Council.

During a formal performance review the Head Administrator may cover the following areas:

- The quality and quantity of your work.
- Strengths and areas for improvement.
- Initiative and teamwork.
- Attendance.
- Customer service orientation.
- Problem solving skills.
- Ongoing professional growth and development.
- All other competencies for your position, level of licensure or certification.

Additional areas will also be reviewed as they relate to your specific job. Along with incorporating competencies, La Academia Dolores Huerta will implement a multi-source feedback system to appraise the performance of all staff, professional, licensed and non-licensed, to nurture self-efficacy and goal-orientation. All employees will receive feedback from their supervisors, peers, team members, parents and students. The multi-source feedback system will be used to supplement the traditional evaluation system, enabling La Academia Dolores Huerta to engage its employees in development activities, thereby enlisting its entire staff in continuous learning based on quality feedback.

Your review provides an opportunity for collaborative, two-way communication between you and the Head Administrator. This is a good time to discuss your interests and future goals. The Head Administrator is interested in helping you to progress and grow in order to achieve personal as well as work-related goals. The Head Administrator can answer any questions you may have about the performance review process.

The Head Administrator uses your annual performance evaluation as a factor in recommending your rate/salary increase, promotions, or award of subsequent contracts, if any. Your performance evaluation may also be impacted by your willingness to follow and cooperate with La Academia Dolores Huerta's employee conduct policies as described in this Handbook or other directives or instruction given to you by the Head Administrator or your supervisor.

V. STANDARD OF CONDUCT

Generally speaking, we expect each employee to act in a mature and responsible way at all times. If you are not able to attend, you must request prior permission from the Head Administrator to be absent. If you are a non-exempt employee, you will be paid for time spent. Prior approval by the Head Administrator will be required for any overtime.

C. Computer Software (Unauthorized Copying): La Academia Dolores Huerta licenses the use of computer software from a variety of outside companies. La Academia Dolores Huerta does not have the right to reproduce the software or to grant licenses for other users. La Academia Dolores Huerta does not attempt to articulate all possible violations of this policy. In general, users are expected to use La Academia Dolores Huerta computers and computer networks in a responsible, polite, and professional manner. Users are not allowed to:

1. Knowingly send, receive, or display sexually oriented images, messages, or cartoons.

F. Drug-Free Workplace Policy: Employees who work while under the influence of alcohol or drugs present a safety hazard to themselves, their co-workers and students. In addition, employees who work under the influence of alcohol or drugs threaten La Academia Dolores Huerta's reputation and integrity. La Academia Dolores Huerta policy is to create a drug-free workplace in accordance with the Drug Free Workplace Act of 1988. The unlawful manufacture, distribution, dispensation, possession, sale or use of a controlled substance in the workplace or while engaged in business off premises, such as at a parent's home, are strictly prohibited.

Prohibition and Standards.

1. General Prohibition. No employee or student will unlawfully possess, use, distribute, dispense, manufacture or be under the influence of alcohol or drugs while on La Academia Dolores Huerta grounds; at La Academia Dolores Huerta sponsored or supervised activities (e.g., field trips); in any La Academia Dolores Huerta owned, leased or used vehicle; while engaged in or going to or from La Academia Dolores Huerta activities; or, while attending a school-related activity (e.g., workshop).

NMSA 1978 §§30-31-1 et seq.

3. Exceptions. This policy is not intended to prevent possession of a controlled substance if it was obtained directly pursuant to a valid prescription or order, from a physician, dentist or other person duly licensed, registered, or otherwise permitted under federal and state law to distribute or dispense the substance in the course of professional practice. If an employee is taking prescribed or over-the-counter medication that may affect work performance, this information should be immediately reported to the Head Administrator or her designee.

4. Conditions of employment. As a condition of employment, each employee will abide by the terms of this drug-free workplace policy. requirement that such employee satisfactorily participate in a drug-abuse assistance or rehabilitation program approved for such purpose by a federal, state or local health agency, law enforcement or another appropriate agency. The employee will be responsible for all uninsured costs associated with any such program.

The School reserves the right to search and inspect for maintenance of a safe drug-free workplace.

H. Employment of Relatives: If you and members of your family are employed by La Academia Dolores Huerta, one may not supervise the other nor work in the same department. Should two employees who work together or supervise each other enter into a personal, non-work related relationship, one or both employees may have to be reassigned.

No person who is the spouse, father, father-in-law, mother, mother-in-law, son, son-in-law, daughter, daughter-in-law, sister, sister-in-law, brother, or brother-in-law of the head administrator may be employed by La Academia Dolores Huerta unless approved in advance by the governing council. Employees are not permitted to sell raffle chances, merchandise or otherwise solicit or distribute literature without management approval. Persons not employed by La Academia Dolores Huerta are prohibited from soliciting or distributing literature on La Academia Dolores Huerta property.

J. Confidentiality: As an employee of La Academia Dolores Huerta, you may learn confidential information about students, other employees or school business (together referred to as "confidential school information"). During and after employment with La Academia Dolores Huerta, confidential school information may not be shared with non-employees of La Academia Dolores Huerta and may only be shared with other La Academia Dolores Huerta employees on a need-to-know basis. If you violate this policy, disciplinary action will be taken up to and including termination or discharge.

La Academia Dolores Huerta will provide employee information to outside agencies only upon written authorization of the employee or as provided by law. Only the Head Administrator or his/her designee can make decisions about releasing confidential personnel information. Most banks, credit agencies, or other parties requiring employment information will provide you with an appropriate form. You must provide a written and signed authorization form to the school, before La Academia Dolores Huerta will release your personal information. La Academia Dolores Huerta's standard reference letters are limited to confirming dates of employment, job title, and current rate of pay. All requests for employment verification must be received by the Head Administrator or Business Manager/Specialist in writing. La Academia Dolores Huerta's response will be in writing. La Academia Dolores Huerta does not provide letters of recommendation.

La Academia Dolores Huerta protects employees' confidentiality and expects the employees to protect confidential school information as well. No one should provide any information about an employee and must refer any phone calls seeking such information to Head Administrator or Business Manager/Specialist. Under no circumstances will La Academia Dolores Huerta verify employment by telephone.

In addition, La Academia Dolores Huerta also expects that you respect the privacy of your fellow employees, both with employees and non-employees. Personal information about any employee may not be discussed with other employees or non-employees without written authorization. M. Discipline Process: A number of tools are utilized to motivate, correct, and/or discipline employees, including, but not limited to verbal and written warnings, suspensions, and discharge or termination as determined to be appropriate in each individual circumstance.

If your work performance is unsatisfactory or if your conduct on the job becomes a problem, your supervisor may counsel you and work with you to help resolve the issues. You may initiate this counseling as well.

Your supervisor may but is not required to use a progressive, corrective process. This disciplinary process may involve, but is not limited to, oral or written warnings, probation for poor work performance/habits, disciplinary suspension, and termination.

If progressive discipline is not considered appropriate, however, the sequence described above will not be followed.

THE HEAD ADMINISTRATOR RESERVES THE RIGHT TO DISCIPLINE AN EMPLOYEE BY TAKING WHATEVER ACTIONS, AT HIS/HER SOLE DISCRETION, HE/SHE DEEMS TO BE APPROPRIATE AND IN THE BEST INTERESTS OF THE SCHOOL, UP TO AND INCLUDING TERMINATION OR DISCHARGE.

In the case of serious misconduct, it may be necessary to protect the safety and security of the workplace by suspending or placing the involved employees on administrative leave in order to remove them from the workplace. In addition, in some instances, while your supervisor is investigating and considering appropriate action, you may be relieved from duty pending a full investigation of the circumstances. The investigation may have one of the following results: (a) if the circumstances do not justify suspension, you will be allowed to return to work, although other disciplinary action may be taken; (b) if the circumstances do justify suspension you will be notified of the suspension and dates and conditions for returning to work. You will not be paid or accrue sick leave (if applicable to you) for the period suspension occurs; or (c) if the circumstances justify termination, and you are not a "tenured" or contract employee within the meaning of the New Mexico School Personnel Act, you will be dismissed and a final paycheck will be issued excluding time of unpaid suspension. If you are a "tenured" or contract employee and the circumstances justify termination or discharge, the process outlined in this handbook will be followed.

N. Grievance Procedures: La Academia Dolores Huerta recognizes that most personnel-related conflicts arise from a lack of communication. This procedure is designed to provide a formal mechanism for promoting or restoring such communication so that problems may be resolved before more serious difficulties arise. The purpose of this policy and these procedures is to provide for the reporting and resolution of legitimate employment-related concerns of the employees of La Academia Dolores Huerta at the earliest possible time and with the least possible expense, disruption and friction. Nothing contained herein will be construed to limit in any way the ability of La Academia Dolores Huerta and the grievant to resolve any grievance by informal means. An employee's decision to refrain from the grievance procedure in lieu of alternative dispute mechanisms may limit the administration's ability to promptly and completely resolve the employee's concerns. You are encouraged to use this process to ensure timely and satisfactory resolutions.

NO PERSONS WILL SUFFER RETALIATION, RECRIMINATION, DISCRIMINATION, HARASSMENT, OR BE OTHERWISE ADVERSELY AFFECTED BECAUSE OF HIS OR HER USE OF THIS GRIEVANCE PROCEDURE.

1. Definitions.

(a) "Grievant" means an employee who is personally and directly affected by a condition for which he or she seeks a resolution.

(b) "Grievance" means an allegation by an employee that the treatment he or she has received from a superior is unfair or improper, or that there has been a violation, a misinterpretation or an inequitable application of school policy, administrative rules or procedures that directly and adversely affect the grievant. A single grievance may be submitted jointly by more than one grievant.

(c) "Resolution(s)" means the proposed written decision by the appropriate administrator(s), grievance review committee, or Governing Council, in response to the grievance.

(d) "Parties in interest" means the grievant and the superior or other employee(s) of La Academia Dolores Huerta whose conduct or actions are the subject of the grievance.

2. Limitations to Grievance Procedure. A grievance cannot be filed by a former employee after the effective date of termination or discharge of employment.

The following situations are not covered by this grievance procedure and are therefore not a grievance under this policy:

(a) The discretionary act(s) of professional judgment relating to the evaluation of the work performance of any employee by his or her immediate supervisor.

(b) Any personnel decision made by the Governing Council, including, but not limited to a refusal to re-employ, a discharge, a demotion, or any other action directly and adversely affecting the employment of an employee.

(c) Situations in which the Governing Council and Head Administrator are without authority to act.

(d) Situations in which the remedy for the alleged violation exclusively resides in some person, agency, or authority other than the Governing Council.

(e) Situations as to which a different procedure with La Academia Dolores Huerta is prescribed by a state or federal authority.

(f) Situations as to which a different procedure or remedy has been provided by the Governing Council.

(g) Situations involving a grievance by a contractor with La Academia Dolores Huerta.

3. General Procedural Requirements.

(a) A grievance must be initiated at Level 1 within ten (10) work days of the date upon which the grievant became aware of the circumstances which gave rise to the grievance.

(b) Whenever possible, any grievance conference or hearing at any level will be scheduled during a mutually convenient time that does not conflict with the regularly scheduled school program.

(c) A grievant requiring the attendance and testimony of other employees will have the right to bring such witness as are willing to testify in his or her behalf, and any necessary substitutes or release time will be provided and the expense borne by La Academia Dolores Huerta when hearings must be scheduled during the school day.

(d) A separate file will be maintained by the Head Administrator for grievances. All documents produced during the processing of a grievance will be kept in the separate file.

(e) All parties shall maintain confidentiality with regard to proceedings, and the resolution of the grievance, to the extent possible, and the proceedings will not be made public unless agreed to by the grievant and the Head Administrator or Governing Council or unless the grievant pursues the matter beyond this policy.

(f) The grievance file will be maintained for one (1) year after being cleared according to the New Mexico State Records Center and Archives, and access to the file will be limited to the grievant, the immediate supervisor, the Head Administrator and the members of the Governing Council.

(g) A grievant may terminate the process at any level if he or she indicates in writing a desire to do so, accepts the resolution at that level, or fails to pursue his or her grievance by filing at the next level within the specified time period or refuses to attend a scheduled meeting even if that meeting must occur after school.

(h) All grievances will be filed and processed on grievance forms prepared by La Academia Dolores Huerta and available in the office of the Head Administrator.

(i) The time limits at any level may be extended by mutual agreement between the grievant and the Head Administrator, review committee or Governing Council.

(j) Except as otherwise provided herein, unless a party can demonstrate prejudice arising from a departure from the proceedings established in this policy, such departure will be presumed to be harmless error.

4. Procedural Steps.

(a) Level 1 (Informal Conference). Prior to the filing of a formal written grievance, the grievant will first discuss the grievance with his or her staff representative in a good faith attempt to resolve the grievance prior to the filing of a formal grievance. In the case of a claim of sexual harassment in which the grievant's staff representative is the subject of the claim, the grievant may initiate the grievance at the next supervisory level above that of the staff representative.

(b) Level 2 (Head Administrator). If the grievant is not satisfied with the discussion and disposition of the grievance at Level 1, he or she may file a written grievance with the supervisor (Head Administrator) within ten (10) days of the disposition. The Head Administrator will communicate his or her proposed resolution in writing to the grievant within five (5) workdays from the filing of the written grievance. If the proposed resolution is not acknowledged or approved by the grievant within five (5) workdays, the Head Administrator has the discretion to require a hearing or conference and gather such evidence prior to the preparation of the decision as he or she feels would assist in any appropriate resolution of the grievance. The hearing or conference will occur within five (5) workdays of the grievant's action/inaction regarding the Head Administrator's proposed resolution. The hearing or conference should be as informal as possible and will be conducted as the Head Administrator feels is appropriate for a full understanding of the grievance, the position of the grievant and the evidence supporting the position. The Head Administrator will have the right to ask any question of the interested parties as he or she deems necessary. Within five (5) work days following the hearing, the Head Administrator will render his or her written proposed resolution to the grievant.

(c) Level 3 (La Academia Dolores Huerta Governing Council). If the grievant is not satisfied with the resolution of the grievance at Level 3, or if the Head Administrator fails to issue a proposed resolution within the specified time limit, the grievant may make a written request to the Head Administrator for a hearing with the Governing Council within ten (10) work days after the Head Administrator's resolution was rendered or due, if none was received. At its sole option, the Governing Council may appoint a Grievance Review Committee to hear the grievance. The Grievance Review Committee will be comprised of three (3) persons, one from each of the following staff categories: Certified School Instructor; Administrator (other than the immediate supervisor or Head Administrator involved) and one Governing Council member.

The members will be appointed by the Governing Council. The Committee will select its Chairperson prior to the processing of the grievance. The Chairperson of the Committee will schedule an informal hearing within ten (10) work days of receipt of the grievance. If a Committee member is unable to participate in the informal hearing, the Chairperson will designate a substitute from within the employee category of the non-attending member.

5. Procedure for Hearing before Governing Council Committee. The following procedure will be used at hearings before the Governing Council Committee.

(a) The parties in interest will submit written statements of position which will be delivered to the Governing Council Committee Chair at least five (5) days prior to the hearing. In addition, any other documentary evidence desired to be reviewed by the Governing Council Committee will be submitted at that time.

(b) The grievant will present his/her grievance first through testimony, witnesses, documents, etc. Cross-examination will not be allowed by the other party in interest, if any.

(c) The other party or parties in interest, if any, will present their responses to the grievance. Cross-examination will not be allowed.

(d) The Committee members may ask any questions that it deems necessary.

(e) Arrangements to make a taped recording or to keep minutes of the proceeding will be made by the Chair. A verbatim transcript is not required, but any minutes or other written record will fairly reflect the substance of the hearing.

(f) Within five (5) days following the date of the hearing, the Committee will transmit its findings and recommendations for proposed resolutions to the Governing Council. Within ten (10) working days, the Governing Council shall consider the recommendations of the Committee. The Governing Council may accept the recommendations as presented, impose a lesser sanction if disciplinary action was recommended, or decide to hold a new hearing on the grievance.

(g) If the Governing Council rules that it is appropriate to hear the grievance, it will set the date for such hearing and the parties in interest will be notified by the Governing Council President. If the Governing Council adopts the recommendations of the Governing Council Committee, the decision shall be final.

6. Hearing before full Governing Council. If the Governing Council decides to grant a new hearing the following procedures will be followed.

(a) Each party in interest will have the opportunity to present oral statements limited to thirty (30) minutes each.

(b) The presentation will be limited to a review of evidence previously presented, unless the Governing Council, in its discretion, allows new evidence to be presented during the hearing.

(c) Evidence may not be cross-examined by the other party in interest, however, the Governing Council may ask questions of any party as it deems necessary or appropriate.

(d) Hearings will be conducted in an executive session, unless the grievant requests that the hearing be held in a public meeting.

(e) The Governing Council will render a written decision within 10 working days after the hearing. In arriving at its decision, the Governing Council has complete discretion in fashioning such relief, if any, as it believes is appropriate, regardless of the relief requested. The Governing Council's decision is final.

VI. TERMINATION AND DISCHARGE.

A. Definitions.

1. Termination. In the case of a licensed employee, "termination" means on-renewal of a contract at the end of its term. For all other employees, "termination" means severing or ending the employment relationship.

2. Discharge. Discharge means to sever the employment relationship of licensed personnel or employees under contract before the end of the existing contract.

3. Just cause. Just cause refers to a reason for termination or discharge that is rationally related to an employee's competence or moral turpitude or the proper performance of his/her duties and that is not in violation of the employee's civil or constitutional rights.

B. Termination of Employees with Less than Three (3) Consecutive Years of Service.

1. General. La Academia Dolores Huerta may terminate an employee (licensed or non-licensed) with fewer than three (3) years of consecutive service for any reason it deems sufficient.

a. Non-contract employees. Employees with three (3) years or less of consecutive service and who are not employed pursuant to a contract are "at-will" employees, that is, the employee may be dismissed from employment at any time and for any lawful reason the Head Administrator deems appropriate. A written notice of termination will be provided to the employee.

b. Contract employees. Contract employees with three (3) years or less of consecutive service; i.e., who have not been reemployed under a third consecutive contract, may be terminated by non-renewal of their contracts for any lawful reason the Head Administrator deems appropriate.

2. Protest Procedure for Employees with Less than Three (3) Consecutive Years of Service. For an employee of less than three (3) consecutive years who was terminated or whose contract was not renewed, there is no protest. A terminated employee may request a statement of reasons from the Head Administrator for his/her termination or non-renewal. Requests for an explanation will be made in writing and delivered to the Head Administrator no later than five (5) working days after receipt of the notice of termination or notice of non-renewal. Reasons for the Head Administrator's decision will be provided to the employee within ten (10) days of receiving his/her request. The decision of the Head Administrator to terminate is final and not subject to appeal.

C. Termination/Discharge Policy for Employees with More than Three (3) Years of Consecutive Service.

1. Non-Contract and Contract: No employee who has been employed by La Academia Dolores Huerta for three (3) years or more of consecutive service may be terminated or discharged except for just cause.

2. Protest Procedure. La Academia Dolores Huerta provides the following procedures for challenges to termination or discharge decisions for employees with three (3) or more years of consecutive service:

a. Request for Statement of Rationale. An employee who has been employed by La Academia Dolores Huerta for three (3) consecutive years and who receives a notice of termination or notice of non-renewal may request a written statement of the reasons for non-renewal. The employee must request that statement of reasons within five (5) working days from the date she receives the notice of termination. The Head Administrator shall provide the statement of reasons within five (5) working days from the request.

b. Statement before the Governing Council. If the employee requests an opportunity to make a statement to the Governing Council regarding the Head Administrator's decision to terminate, she must do so SIMULTANEOUSLY with the request for written reasons for the termination. The opportunity to present to the Governing Council will be granted, if within 10 working days after receiving the written reasons for termination, the employee submits a written statement to Governing Council which includes an explanation of why the employee believes that he/she was terminated for reasons that do not constitute just cause. In addition, the statement must include facts, supporting documentation and potential witnesses who will support the employee's position. Thereafter, the Governing Council will meet to hear the employee present the statement in no less than five (5) and no more than fifteen (15) working days after receipt of the employee's written statement of contentions.

c. Hearing on termination:

i. The employee and the Governing Council may have representation of their choice, but at their own expense.

ii. The hearing will be conducted in accordance with the provisions of the Open Meetings Act.

iii. A designee of the Governing Council will first state the reasons for termination and present the factual support for those reasons. The reasons will be limited to those first provided to the employee after his/her request for an opportunity to address the Governing Council.

iv. The employee will next state his/her reasons and factual support for contending that the termination was not for just cause. Those reasons and factual support must be the same as those provided in the employee's written response to the statement provided by the Principal.

v. The Head Administrator may offer such rebuttal testimony that she deems appropriate.

vi. Each party may question all witnesses.

vii. Only evidence presented at the hearing will be considered and the Governing Council is only required to consider that testimony it considers reliable.

viii. No record will be kept of the hearing.

ix. The Governing Council will notify the employee and the Principal of its decision in writing within five (5) working days from the conclusion of the meeting.

[Reference, NMSA 1978 §22-10A-24.]

d. Appeals – Arbitration on Termination. Either the terminated employee or other representatives of La Academia Dolores Huerta may appeal the decision of the Council. The matter will be appealed to an independent arbitrator who will hear all evidence as if presented for the first time. The arbitration process takes place as follows:

i. Timely Request. The employee must submit a request for an appeal in writing that states his/her reasons for the appeal to the President of the Governing Council within five (5) working days from the receipt of the Governing Council's written decision. The request for appeal must include a statement of facts supporting the basis for appeal. Failure to submit a timely appeal will bar the employee's objection to the decision of the Governing Council and will render the Governing Council's decision final.

ii. Selection of Arbitrator. The Governing Council and the employee will meet within ten (10) working days from the receipt of the employee's timely request for appeal to select an independent arbitrator. If they cannot make a choice, they will ask the presiding judge of the First Judicial District Court for the State of New Mexico to select an individual to hear the matter. The judge will make the selection within five (5) days of the request. The arbitrator selected must be experienced in school employment matters and must have no financial, personal or other direct interest in the outcome of the proceeding.

iii. Scope of Arbitration. The arbitrator will hear all of the evidence presented and not be limited to a review of the Governing Council's decision. The issue before the arbitrator will be limited to whether the evidence presented demonstrates just cause for termination.

iv. Date of Arbitration. The arbitration will be held within thirty (30) working days from the date the arbitrator is selected. Notice of the hearing will be provided by the arbitrator, which will include the date, time and location of the hearing.

v. Rules of Arbitration:

(A) La Academia Dolores Huerta and the employee may have representation of their choosing, but at their own expense;

(B) Discovery will be limited to depositions and requests for production of documents on a time schedule to be determined by the arbitrator;

(C) The arbitrator has the power to issue subpoenas for witnesses and documents and to administer oaths;

(D) The New Mexico Rules of Civil procedure will not be strictly enforced, however, the rules will apply to the extent that both contentions and responses are amply and fairly presented;

(E) The Rules of Evidence will not strictly apply, but the arbitrator will permit either party to call and examine witnesses, to cross-examine witnesses and to introduce evidence. The arbitrator will require reasonable substantiation of statements and authentication of records where the accuracy or truth is in reasonable doubt;

(F) The Governing Council will have the burden to show by a preponderance of evidence that the employee was terminated for reasons that constitute just cause.

(G) If the Governing Council cannot show just cause, or the employee sufficiently rebuts the Governing Council's reasons, then the arbitrator will reverse the decision to terminate and order reinstatement of the employee;

(H) Either the employee or La Academia Dolores Huerta may record the proceeding at their own expense, but it will not constitute an official record for purposes of further appeal.

(I) Departures from these procedures are considered harmless unless the party can demonstrate prejudice.

c. Selection of Arbitrator. The Governing Council and the employee will meet within ten (10) working days from the receipt of the employee's request for appeal to select an independent arbitrator. If they cannot decide they will request the presiding judge of the Third Judicial District Court for the State of New Mexico to select an individual to hear the matter. EMPLOYEE HANDBOOK 2021-2022

I, _____, (print name) have received a copy of the La Academia Dolores Huerta Charter School’s Employee Handbook and understand that I am responsible for becoming familiar with the policies described in it. I understand that the information contained in it represents administration guidelines only, which may be modified from time to time. I understand that neither the Handbook’s policies nor any representations made by the administration representative, at the time of hire or subsequently, are to be interpreted as a contract between the school and any of its employees. Unless I have a written contract with LADH or am otherwise covered by the long term employment provisions of the New Mexico School Personnel Act, I understand that I am employed as an “at will” employee and that the employment relationship can be terminated at any time by either the employee or LADH. The only contract that I should rely upon regarding my specific terms of employment is the written contract signed between me and the school’s head administrator, IF ANY. I further understand that my employment is voluntarily entered into, that I am free to resign at any time (subject to applicable ethical/professional responsibility requirements) and that LADH may terminate the employment relationship whenever it determines that it is in its best interest to do so in compliance with the New Mexico School Personnel Act.

Further, I have read and understand the provisions of the following school policies, procedures and guidelines contained in the Handbook and agree that adherence to them and all others is a condition of my continued employment.
